Route 66 Car Club General Meeting Minutes

November 14, 2012

- 1) Membership-- 79 members which included two new members who were introduced at the meeting.
- 2) Treasure Report --$1634.25
- 3) $2517.20 checks were given out to the different charities that were introduced at the meeting. All of the charities were very grateful and gave very heart warming speeches.
- 4) Route 66 Car Club Officer Elections took place (please see Mark's e-mail for results)
- 5) Good Guys Car Show---Several hands went up that they were going, some for the day and others for the weekend.
- 6) Christmas Party will still be at Coco's at 5:00 Dec 2nd
- 7) Northern Lights Parade will start at 6:00 on Dec 8th. If you are interested please be there at 5:00 on Dec 8th. An e-mail will go out on Friday Dec 7th as to more information. The Wiebe's offered their home for a party after the parade as the generously have for years There will be a Pot Luck --please call Pat or Ed for Directions.
- 9) March Home Show-- We will need a head count on who is interested within this next month. Please call Mark at 928-699-3878
- 10) Western Interstate Region Conference will be Wed. May 22nd at Heritage Sq. They would like several of our cars to be there and we can park in Aspey, Watkins and Diesel's parking lot. They will have music and a sock hop.
- 11) Mark spoke about next year's September Show and what went on when he and Johnny and Bob met with Mayor Jerry Nabours. Everyone is going to try to keep the car show downtown and not move it to the east side.
- 12) It was brought up that Coral Evans would like a car display given on the old Rt 66 (now Phoenix Avenue) sometime next year. She would also like to have a display by the Route 66 Park by Fanning and Route 66 Everyone seemed to think that was a good idea as Coral Evans is a great support to our car club.
- 13) If you have any pictures or information you would like to share with the newsletter, please e-mail Jon Wiedenheft at route66carclub@gmail.com.

Sincerely,

Alana Velez, Secretary
